Extra ideas from Reverend Anne –

There's a lot in the Old Testament about the hope of Messiah (Jesus) coming (Numbers 22: 17, Isaiah 11, Isaiah 53 are classic examples. Isaiah 35 speaks of the hope of the fortunes of the people of God being restored.

In the New Testament there is hope in all the Easter narratives, and in Pentecost (Acts 2).

You could also look at the hope experienced by some of the people Jesus healed, such as Jairus' daughter, Bartimaeus and the paralytic, and the healing of the lame man by Peter and John after the resurrection in Acts 3.

The parable of the hidden treasure and the parable of the pearl in Matthew 13, or you could draw hope out of the parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin and the prodigal son in Luke 15.
